- The next meeting will be Thursday May 13, 2021
- Format and location will be announced based on conditions at the time of the next meeting

Old Business

- Commercialization of CISSP discussion
 - Activities seem to be more commercialized
- Discussed requirements to upgrade ISC(2) logo on chapter web site to comply with new standard
 - No one really knew there was a new standard
 - Matthew has applied the necessary updates.
- Annual ISC(2) survey has been submitted by Mac
 - Survey contained 35 pages

New items

- Complements of Ray Pompon a report containing statistics on stolen credentials
 - <https://www.f5.com/labs/articles/threat-intelligence/2021-credential-stuffing-report>
- Community hub question from Matt
- Florida hack for water treatment facility was discussed
 - Hackers changed chemical mix of the drinking water
 - Hackers obtained credentials for remote control software and actually gained access to the internal systems
 - Remote control software installed to allow contractors to have access to internal systems

- Hack took advantage of an unsupported version of windows
- A major issue comes from making industrial control systems IP accessible and that level of access was not available before
 - Controls may not keep up with requirements
- Mac expressed that he misses the old “off the record” forums that used to be offered at the old security
- Is ransomware still around?
 - Ray Pompon reported it comes and goes
 - Seemed to peak at the end of summer
 - Some changes and some are more stealthy
